Since the Code of conduct is a University Publication, The college follows and introduces any change made by the University in the code proactively. A copy of the code is also kept with the Administrative office in library for reference. At the beginning of each academic year, the college prospectus is distributed to the members of teaching and non-teaching staff. A soft copy of the handbook is also uploaded on website. Prior to the publication, the handbook is thoroughly reviewed and periodic change are regularly done to enhance the relevance of the prospectus to its intended stakeholders. A hard copy of the same is kept with the Administrative office for reference.
