Teacher Feedback Report

Professors and advisors have a wealth of knowledge—use that knowledge to move closer to your goals. Feedback is designed to bring about an improvement in learners' performance and achievement. Feedback can be given by the practitioner or by peers. It can be either formal or informal. It can be oral or written, it can be formative or summative, but overall it must provide the learner with specific advice on how to improve their performance.

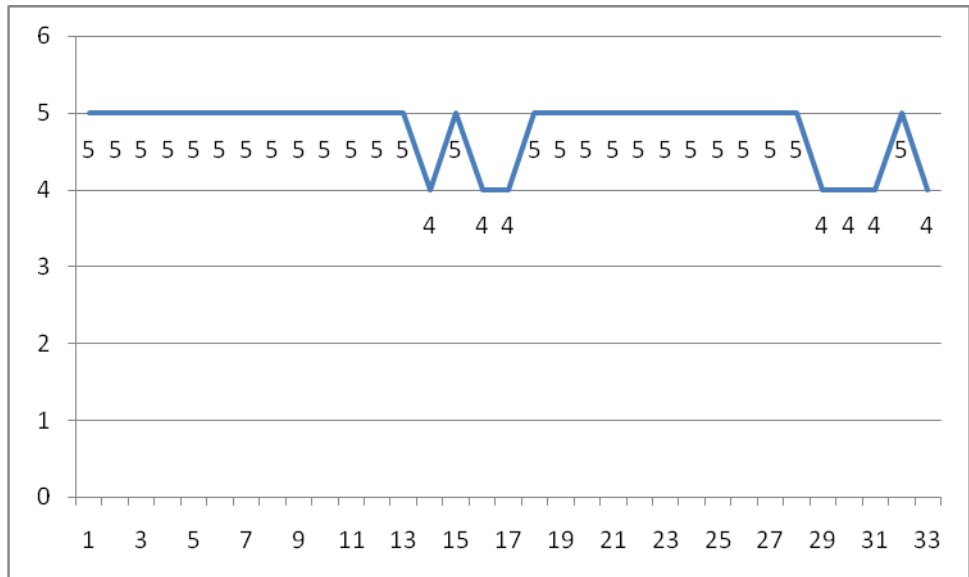

The analysis of the Teachers' feedback report reflects the adequacy and availability of teaching – library facilities, infrastructure facility and the course content according to the course needs. Going through the feedback report submitted by the teachers, it has been observed that overall 72% teachers are strongly agreed and 28% teachers are agreed with the facility of the college.
